

Jonathan & Lisa Miller

Jonathan: Attorney, Frost Brown Todd

Lisa: Women's Health Counselor

Jonathan is The Recovering Politician! He was elected twice to statewide offices, authored three books, graduated with high honors from Harvard college and law school, co-founded a national grassroots reform movement (No Labels), contributed to The Daily Beast, played on The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, reached the final table at the World Series of Poker and with his summer camp sweetheart, raised two daughters. Whew! He's now an attorney and is taking advantage of the free dance lessons with his wife to raise money for a great cause. He also just started a venture called Second Act Strategies, which performs crisis management simulations.

Lisa is a mother, Women's Health Counselor, founder of the grassroots non-profit, Girl's Rock!, serves as a hospital and support group chaplain, and trains yoga teachers in the Kentucky region and abroad. She enjoys crafting, photography, movies and the Tuba! Lisa says she is a fan of the DWTs TV show, and getting to raise funds for Surgery on Sunday sealed the deal. She's hoping to learn a few dance routines that they can perform together at the next family wedding.

"I'm not nervous, because as a recovering politician, I am still addicted to the spotlight, and I don't mind making a fool of myself," Jonathan explains.

Lisa says, "This new adventure in dance is a fantastic way to celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary."
